

UPDATE OF FOREIGN CAPITAL REGISTRATION WITH THE CENTRAL BANK OF BRAZIL

Companies that receive foreign investments must update, up to March 31, the information related to the assets, liabilities, net equity, paid-in corporate capital, and the respective interest of each foreign investor on said paid-in capital on the reference date of December 31, 2019, in the Registration System of the Foreign Direct Investment (RDE-IED) of the Central Bank of Brazil.

Companies that receive foreign investments with assets or net equity values lower than R$ 250 million must update their economic and financial information once a year up to MARCH 31

Companies that receive foreign investments with assets or net equity values equal to or exceeding R$ 250 million must update their economic and financial information 4 times a year, up to the following dates:

MARCH 31 related to the reference date December 31

JUNE 31 related to the reference date March 31

SEPTEMBER 31 related to the reference date June 31

DECEMBER 31 related to the reference date September 31

IN ADDITION TO THE QUARTERLY AND ANNUAL UPDATES ABOVE, the receiving company must update the information in the RDE-IED whenever there is an event that changes the foreign investor's interest (within 30 days from the event).

The failure to submit, the delayed submission, or submission with incorrect or false information may give rise to the imposition of fine by the Central Bank of Brazil.
