

ORDINANCE 150/2020 OF THE MINISTRY OF ECONOMY

EXTENSION OF THE DEADLINE TO PAY EMPLOYERS' SOCIAL SECURITY CONTRIBUTION, SAT, CPRB AND "FUNRURAL"

Ordinance 150/2020 of the Ministry of Economy was published in the Official Gazette, extending the deadline for payment of social security contributions that were not provided for in Ordinance No. 139/2020. Thus, with this new Ordinance, the following social security contributions for March and April 2020 must be paid within the maturity periods of the contributions due in July and September 2020:

- Employers' social security contribution on the remuneration paid to employees
- Employers' social security contribution on the remuneration paid to individual taxpayers
- Work-Related Accident Insurance (SAT)
- "Funrural" contribution
- Social Security Contribution on Gross Revenues (CPRB)
- Social security contribution due by the domestic employer

It should be noted that the term extension does not apply to the social security contribution discounted from insured employees and individual taxpayers.
